

“GOD Who Are You? AND Who Am I? is on the various names of God, a subject I have studied before. However, this is one of the best studies on this subject that I have ever seen. Ann writes in a manner that is easy to understand, and she presents truths that we all need to know. I am 68 years young, have been a Christian since I was six years old, and she is teaching me different aspects to things I thought I already knew. I can only describe her approach as gentle, easy to understand, presentation of situations that touch us all, telling truths we need to know and live by, and in a way that you know the Lord Himself revealed this to her.

“Let me encourage you to get her book. If you think you are too busy, then you are probably one that needs it most. I thought I would just read through it, but found myself filling out the blanks and re-reading, highlighting, circling, underlining, etc. It's an easy read; she uses real people's experiences, along with her own.”
—Ann O., Kansas

“It was my pleasure to have been informed about your book a few weeks ago. I quickly opened your Web site where I found your portrait and also the preview of your new book in which interests me so much.”
—Akiko N, Japan

“I've been telling everybody about the study. I especially like how you presented the B-E-A-R Facts of Faith.”
—Diane F., Indiana

“I was just reading this morning and yesterday morning again in your lovely book. It will bless me I know for a lifetime. It is so God inspired. Every time I pick it up the Lord speaks to me in a new way. Thank you again for being transparent before others so that the Lord can speak to us through your and others' stories.”
—Sarah M., Missouri

“I like how Scripture is interspersed with stories of real people in this study. It shows how the bible is relevant for us today.”
—Kathy M., Kansas

“During this study, our marriage was renewed by God as healer, Jehovah-Rapha. After forty three years of marriage, my husband got cancer and saw that I was there for him through it all. It softened his heart and he understands what love is now.”
—Carol, P., Kansas

“Ann makes this study of the Hebrew names of God easy to understand and inviting to read. I think God has given Ann a gift of teaching and an obligation to get this in front of as many people as possible.”
—Beverly W., Kansas

“The Bible verses are presented and elaborated upon with personal stories. By explaining in this way, I am better able to grasp the meaning of the verse and apply it to my own life. I found the reading and discussions to be enlightening and rewarding.”
—Diana E., Kansas

“I really enjoyed reading this Bible study and doing the work in it for our study. I believe I gained a deeper understanding of who God is through learning about all the names of God. I want to go back and study it again because I think I will get even more out of it the next time I go through it. I also enjoyed so much all the testimonies. I believe the Lord is using this book to help many people. I give God the glory for helping Ann to write this awesome book.”

—Pat D., Oklahoma

“The Bible study I attended is one I will always treasure. GOD Who Are You? AND Who Am I? is still a blessing to me. Jehovah-Sabaoth [The Lord of hosts], one of the Hebrew names of God we studied, ministered to me in a special way. I can go to Him and communicate with Him with all the concerns of my life. He is the Supreme Commander, ready to intervene on my behalf. He is the King of Glory, mighty in battle.

“All the names of God radiate His character, like the facets of a diamond; they all sparkle and let us get a glimpse of who He is and His character. How privileged I am to be his daughter.”

—Bonnie S., Oklahoma

“In June 2013, I was in the middle of figuring out my life. I was questioning everything I believed in and lived for and giving a hard look at myself. Being born into a Christian family, I was raised believing in God. I am grateful to my parents for pouring faith and love into my life every step of the way. However, I ended up taking a long journey that brought down my spirit and I struggled to understand what I did and where was God in it.

“That year is when I came to a point where something had to change. My heart was in need of God more than ever. I began having intimate conversations with God, asking God to help me understand Him, to know Him for who He really is. I was asking God, “Do I really know You?”

“I wasn’t aware there was a book written by Ann Morgan Miesner, called GOD Who Are You? AND Who Am I? In fact, I didn’t even know Ann! But God had introduced my sister Jenna to Glad Tidings Ministries where Ann was working. I was not open to go until I felt heavy for a family member that I thought could use a prayer. That day was an amazing time of fellowship and prayer, during which I met Ann and she handed me the book.

“I am forever grateful for the way God answered my prayer. I couldn’t stop being in awe as I read and studied and began relating to each of God’s names and how He worked personally in my life from the very beginning. The book has been a source of insight and inspiration, as well as part of the emotional healing God was taking me through, rebuilding my spirit and vision. I can sincerely say that it is the kind of devotional meant for every woman or man who are truly interested in a deeper understanding of who God is, His nature and heart. I was able to see that God truly hears my prayers and cares enough to have a personal walk with me!

“May this study bless and deepen your search and relationship with the Lord as you learn how magnificent our God is and how He reveals Himself through His Holy names.”

—Lisa K., Oklahoma